I am e₃ evangelizing

I used to be independent. I could accomplish things on my own. Now even simple tasks are hard for me and I have to rely on other people. Their kindness reflects God's tender care of me. My dependence on them reminds me of my dependence on God. I am challenged to grow in trust and humility as I count on others' help. Instead of being bitter or cynical, I want to spread God's love through my words and actions.

An encouraging word, a helping hand, a comforting presence: these are small ways that we can share God's love with the people around us. With the passing of time, we may not be able to do the things we used to, but we can still reflect God's presence to others.

Do you trust that God's care will never leave you? How can you bring hope to others in your life?
